Modern Slavery Statement

Vans Northwest Ltd is committed to ensuring that modern slavery, human trafficking, forced labour and exploitation do not take place within our business or supply chains.

This statement is made in accordance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and reflects our commitment to acting ethically, with integrity and transparency in all business dealings.

About Us

Vans Northwest Ltd is a vehicle retailer based in St Helens, Merseyside. We supply cars, vans and light commercial vehicles to customers across the UK and may also act as a credit broker (not a lender) where finance is arranged.

Our Supply Chain

Our supply chain includes vehicle manufacturers, distributors, auction houses, transport providers, preparation and maintenance suppliers, finance companies and other service providers.

We recognise that risks of modern slavery can arise within supply chains, particularly where goods and services are sourced from multiple providers.

Our Approach

We have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and are committed to preventing it in all areas of our business.

We are committed to:

Acting ethically and with integrity in all business relationships

Complying with all applicable laws, including the Modern Slavery Act 2015

Ensuring our suppliers and business partners share our commitment to ethical standards

Taking appropriate steps to identify and mitigate risk within our supply chain

Due Diligence

We take reasonable steps to assess and manage risk in our supply chain, which may include:

Working with reputable suppliers and partners

Requesting information about suppliers' policies and procedures where appropriate

Reviewing supplier relationships on an ongoing basis

Acting where concerns are identified

Training and Awareness

We promote awareness of modern slavery within our business.

Staff are encouraged to remain vigilant and report any concerns relating to unethical practices or potential exploitation. Any concerns will be taken seriously and investigated appropriately.
